ALAA New Member Applicant Checklist

We thank-you for your consideration in becoming a Member Breeder with the ALAA, and ask that you please print off this checklist and use it as a reference before applying for membership. Once you submit your Breeder Membership Application you will have 30 days to complete the required paperwork for the application process. Failure to do so will result in the cancellation of the membership application, and no fees will be refunded. All information, forms, and PayPal buttons can be found on the ALAA website, under the Breeder Membership tab, Becoming a Member tab: <http://alaa-labradoodles.com/BreederMembership.html>

- Step 1 – Working Website: It is a requirement of the ALAA that you have a functional website.
- Step 2 – Health Guarantee/Sales Contract: The ALAA requires a copy of your health guarantee and/or sales contract to be submitted.
- Step 3 – List of Breeding Dogs: Provide a list of your current and upcoming breeding dogs.
- Step 4 – Pedigrees or ALAA transfer papers: Each dog must have a pedigree submitted or the ALAA transfer papers signed by the original breeder.
- Step 5 – Health Testing: At a minimum the ALAA requires Hips and Elbows to be submitted on all currently active breeding dogs. You do not need to submit any health testing on upcoming breeding dogs at this time.
- Step 6 – DNA Profile: Every dog registered with the ALAA after January 1st, 2015 must have a DNA Profile on file from Vetgen. This does not need to be completed on your dogs prior to becoming a member; however, you will not be able to register a litter until this is completed.
- Step 7 – Application: Fill out and submit your Breeder Membership Application via the online form located on the ALAA website on the above referenced web page.
- Step 8 – Fees: Pay the appropriate application and registration fees via the PayPal buttons located at the bottom of the above referenced web page.
- Step 9 – Submission of information: Email the required information and direct any questions to the New Members Assistant: newmembers@ALAA-labradoodles.com

Note: No monies will be refunded in the case of non-acceptance or if the application process is not completed within the required 30 days.
